GENERAL NEWS.

BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN.

Capture of the Cheyennes.

FORT ROBINSON, Neb Jan 22—The Cheyenne Indian campaign has closed On Monday Col Evans with companies B and D 3d cavalry, found the renegades in a cliff four miles north of the stage road They effected an escape and moved toward the Red Cloud agency Capt Wessels, whose scouts brought this news to him started on their trail with four companies of cavalry, and at noon to-day he came up with them some forty-five miles from this post The work of capturing them either dead or alive began in dead earnest Nine Cheyennes all of them wounded, were captured twenty-three killed and seven are unaccounted for It is supposed that some died of their wounds and others escaped Capt Wessels was slightly wounded the first sergeant of Co E and an Indian scout were wounded, three of Wessel's command, a sergeant, farrier and one private, killed

Is it Piracy?

NEW YORK, Jan 23—A London dispatch says that Capt Adams at Cork reports sighting, about 50 miles west of Fastnett a ship on fire and a steamer well manned in the neighborhood On going to the assistance of the vessel he was warned by the steamer to keep on his course or he would burn too, and not to report what he had seen, else he had better look out for himself on his next voyage.

Hull's Crime Exposed,

NEW YORK, Jan 23—A letter written by Hull, Democratic competitor of Congressman Bisbee, of Florida, just published, shows that notwithstanding his attempt to count Bisbee out, Hull knew on the morning after the election that he had been defeated and that he at once set about securing such alteration of the returns in the counties yet unreported as would wipe out his opponent's majority. Writing the day before the election he says to his friend "I need a few over two hundred to come from Brevard and Dade to give me a majority in the district. Can two hundred and two be had? I would give anything if this could be accomplished.' And again "If anything can be done the cost of the trip is no consideration with me Think of it." Allen swears that, under stimulus of this letter, one Points paid Allen's son to go to Brevard county to procure the false returns, that Lee passed the money to the clerk of the county who engaged ... Goulding to do the required job Accordingly the Brevard county returns were made to show the needed majority for Hull, although this made the Democratic vote for congressman 200 greater than for the assembly The fraud failed because under the recount ordered by the supreme court, Bisbee's election was clearly established

Eternal Justice.

JACKSONVILLE, Jan. 23—In the U S circuit court, Judge Settle sentenced the Brevard county canvassing board convicted for making false return of the election for Lee county The clerk was sentenced three years, Knight, Johns, the sheriff and justice respectively one year each to the Albany penitentiary. Lee is also state senator from Brevard county. All other election cases have been continued till the May term of court

The report of the conference committee on the consular and diplomatic appropriation bill was agreed to and the bill passed Total amount appropriated $1 05 ...

After consideration of the bills on the calendar the bill to amend the patent laws was taken up

The senate after executive session adjourned

House.

The house went into committee of the whole on the bill to apply the proceeds of the sales of public lands to the education of the people The vote on taking up the above bill was yeas 1.. nays 105 The affirmative vote was cast by Democrats and the negative by Republicans who desired to hold the morning hour in order that the debate inaugurated yesterday by Bragg and Ellis should be continued

Goode explained the provisions of the bill

Frye inquired if there was anything in the bill which could compel the fund to be applied in the southern states to the education of the colored race

Goode replied that there was no disposition in any southern state to discriminate in any degree between white and colored children

Keefer inquired if Goode would admit an amendment forbidding any such discrimination

Goode replied that he would unless the gentleman wanted to establish mixed schools He was willing to make it as plain as human language could make it that this fund was to be dedicated to the free education of all children both white and colored but he would oppose any proposition to establish mixed schools because that would be alike ruinous to the white and colored race

Monroe stated that the bill contained a provision that before the money should be paid over by the general government each state should file with the secretary of the treasury a certified copy of the law of such state accepting the provisions of this act and undertaking that the funds should be faithfully applied to the free education of all its children

Townsend of N Y said that it passed all human patience to stand by and see a calm, adroit, and oily proposition to rob loyal states out of their interest in public lands They were to be thimble rigged out of their interest He was not ready for that

The time fixed for general debate having expired, the house proceeded to consider the bill by sections for amendment

Reagan moved to amend the proviso in the 1st section which provides that it shall not limit or abridge the power of congress over the public domain or interfere with granting bounty lands by adding the words "or grants in aid of public improvements"

Eden offered as a substitute for Reagan's amendment, an amendment providing that all public lands which have been granted by congress to aid in the construction of railroads and telegraph lines which have not been earned and which have lapsed by failure to complete such railroads and telegraph lines within the time limited are hereby declared forfeited to the United States.

The committee rose without acting on the amendment

Hewitt from committee on appropriations reported the army appropriation bill and said that he would call it up for consideration after the post-office appropriation bill was disposed of

GROVER'S EXPLANATION

FULL TEXT OF HIS REMARKS IN THE SENATE CALLED FORTH BY THE REPORT OF THE OREGON INVESTIGATIVE COMMITTEE

Speech in Senate Jan 8

It is a duty which I owe to this honorable body as well as to myself to meet these charges as specifically as they are made and I will proceed to do it seriatim

THE TWENTY SEVEN THOUSAND EIGHT HUNDRED AND SEVENTY FIVE DOLLARS

This sum was paid out by order of the board of school land commissioners of which as governor I was president, covering a period of nearly seven years as expenses in segregating the public lands inuring to the state under various acts of congress but chiefly on account of surveying and locating the swamp lands in 1870-73 The swamp land grant of 1860 had been left a dead letter for ten years and the grant was being absorbed and lost Many of the swamps had been meandered and thrown out of the public surveys of the United States so that they could not be recognized in the general land office and segregated to the state Not an acre of the university lands nor of the indemnity common school lands granted in lieu of the sixteenth and thirty sixth sections occupied by settlers before survey had been listed to the state though these grants were twenty years old The agricultural college and salt springs grants had been lost by neglect

Specific authority of statute enacted in 1870 required the board to appoint agents in the field whose duty it should be to employ surveyors and assistants who should actually survey and locate the swamp lands and connect them with the surveys of the United States so as to be segregated to the state under the grant. The act provided for the sale of these lands at $1 per acre subject to reclamation by the purchaser who should on becoming claimant pay 20 per cent of the purchase money to the board This 20 per cent was intended as a fund out of which to defray the expenses of segregation The rates of pay to agents and surveyors were fixed by the act The board performed its duty The agents appointed to execute this work were and are prominent citizens and responsible both morally and pecuniarily Their receipts and vouchers, specifically accounting for all the money paid them, with maps and detailed reports of their work are on file in the public papers of the state No member of the board was interested to the amount of one cent in these payments nor in the land surveyed either directly or indirectly Many of these surveys have been proven in the United States surveyor general's office and adopted by the United States as a part of the public surveys and thousands of acres of the swamp lands have been segregated to the state by means of this work And it has not cost the state treasury one dollar You ask where is the wrong? I answer there is no wrong

The law was specific and absolute in requiring the work to be done and it provided the 20 per cent fund to enable the work to proceed without taxing the people There never was any other provision made to carry the act into effect The board ruled that the act carried its own appropriation and must be executed in a special manner. And from the fund provided they paid the agents, surveyors, chainmen axmen and assistants The state has received the full benefit of this work as it laid the foundation of securing the entire swamp land grant which will probably reach a million of acres The legislatures of 1872 and 1874 the former a Republican and the latter an Independent Reform body, to whom these accounts and surveys were reported appointed special committees to examine the same and they were passed without any objection of any kind as to the mode of payment and they were passed without reduction But this committee appointed by a legislature to whom these accounts had never been reported and to whom under the law they never could be reported proceeded to re-examine accounts six and seven years old which had already been examined and passed by former legislatures and declared the whole sum of these payments unaccounted for and for the sole reason as I am by a late letter that this amount was not specifically named in the general appropriation bills as though a service could not be specially authorized and paid out of the subject matter of the service without the interposition of the treasury

It is done every day both in state and national governments The quibble of law here raised is a matter of the sheerest technicality But I will add here as significant facts that there was no lawyer on the committee that this question was not discussed at the time of their appointment Nor was it raised by any member of any former legislature which had the special duty to receive and pass upon these accounts This sum was honestly expended for the highest benefit to the state and honestly and fully accounted for

THE THIRTY-SEVEN THOUSAND THREE HUNDRED AND EIGHTY TWO DOLLARS

This sum is stated to be illegal fees paid for conveying convicts and insane persons to place of confinement The only knowledge which I have of this subject has been gained from a newspaper recently received from Oregon The statement is that the committee reported all the mileage paid to sheriffs of the several counties in the state for the past eight years as moneys unaccounted for These payments have been made by warrants regularly drawn on the state treasurer out of moneys specifically appropriated for that purpose and upon accounts and vouchers presented by the sheriffs showing their mileage and services The provisions of the state statutes on this subject are particular and have been executed according to the letter of the law

The sheriffs mileage act was passed in 1864 and has been upon the statute book ever since But a subsequent act providing for a per diem and compensation of certain expenses to sheriffs was held by the committee to cover all allowances It appears that the subsequent act does not repeal the mileage act nor specially conflict with it The secretary of state, who is auditor of public accounts, on the claim of the sheriffs supported by their sworn statements ruled that both statutes were in force and paid the mileage The secretary's accounts have been biennially laid before the legislature and approved I hear no pretense of fraud or collusion The question raised is a technicality of law and the sheriffs if it should be determined that they have received too much can refund the overpayment. The animus with which this item is scheduled against me will be observed when I state that the constitution of Oregon provides for the election of the secretary of state by the people makes him auditor of public accounts, requires him to give bond to the state and to report biennially to the legislative assembly and not to the governor And there is no provision in that instrument which gives the executive any authority or influence with the secretary of state The secretary is an independent officer and is authorized to give advice to the legislature on fiscal affairs Whether right or wrong in this matter I never was consulted in the premises by the secretary and have had nothing whatever to do with it I never heard in Oregon that there was a question about the sheriffs mileage

This sum is stated as quartermaster stores in the Modoc war unaccounted for This statement is false and false without excuse I will proceed to demonstrate. In the nature of the service no large quantity of quartermaster stores could accumulate or be disposed of so as to remain unaccounted for For the stores were purchased except on requisition for immediate use and when delivered receipted for and an account was required of their expenditure or return To show that all this property was accounted for I will produce a record which cannot be gainsaid I refer to the report of the late inspector general James A Hardie of the U S army now deceased

The Modoc hostilities occurred in 1872 and 1873 By order of the secretary of war under act of congress approved June ... 1874 General Hardie was directed to proceed to Oregon to examine and report upon this very Modoc service His report is published in house of representatives executive document No 45 43d congress second session and touching the exact subject of this charge reads as follows

"Having finished the investigation with which I have been charged I report in the premises as follows

Immediately upon the receipt of my orders I proceeded to Oregon and California Arriving at Salem in Oregon I called upon Governor Grover who promptly and cheerfully put the records of his office at my disposition and furnished me every other facility for my investigation The secretary of state the adjutant general, the governor's secretary the commanding and staff officers of the troops and other state officials all rendered me every assistance in their power The assistant adjutant general of the department of Columbia Major H Clay Wood also afforded me important aid

I visited the different places in the state named where the more important purchases were made and expenses were incurred I examined all persons that I could reach connected in any way with the accounts in question generally under oath requiring in most cases sworn statements of the correctness of their accounts as presented to the state I ascertained the nature of the transactions of the administrative officers connected with the expenditure and every other important fact it is believed relating to the acquisition and disposition of the property concerned the ruling service and its ... of the troops

Having been at the lava beds during the Modoc operations last year and having traveled over many of the routes used by the troops I was in a position to become readily acquainted through a second visit with the leading features of the region in which the expenditures originated and be ... acquainted with ... concerned

Thus prepared for an intelligent study of these accounts laborious care has been expended in the examination with a view to a report ... the department ... and furnishing ... for action thereupon by congress

On page ... of his report ...

"... General ... for ... communication ... from Governor ... February ... Grover of Oregon ... history of the ... authority ... the connection of the military operations resorted to for the suppression of the Modoc disturbances and for the protection of settlers and embodying also abstracts ... expenditures ... returns of property rolls of troops and citizens employed, and ... in short a full and explicit account of every branch of the subject in hand from his own point of view General Schofield's action was had in obedience to a call from the war department for information upon the topics in question anticipatory of the investigation subsequently directed by congress

The purchases of quartermaster and subsistence property were made principally in Roseburg, Jacksonville and Portland The purchasing officers were (for supplies pertaining to the quartermaster's department) Quartermaster General Jesse N Barker and Major W A Owen Major Quincy A Brooks had principal charge of books and accounts

The subsistence supplies were purchased under the direction of Colonel J N T Miller Returns were carefully made at the close of the second service of all the transactions pertaining to the quartermaster and subsistence departments copies of them accompany this report

For all issues of stores of any kind consumed by the troops or used by them in service except clothing requisitions and receipts were prepared at the time of final adjustment covering all the transactions of the whole period These papers were presented to the company officers and others concerned for their signatures and form the vouchers by which the quartermasters and commissaries acquitted themselves of their responsibility to the state for the property acquired by them These returns are prepared in similar shape to that in use in the army

The clothing referred to as excepted out of the vouchers was charged to the men on the rolls and formed part of their pay After a most thorough and critical examination the inspector general did not reject a single claim and but a few were suspended On page 12 he says The claims actually suspended for want of proof amount to $2,363 73"

In fact the volunteer service of Oregon in the Modoc hostilities of 1872 73 and the integrity of its management were so well considered by the people of that state that the legislature of 1874 the controlling majority of which was elected on an independent platform of retrenchment and reform after a searching examination of its accounts by a special committee aided by skilled assistants, approved the same and assumed and paid the expenses of the entire service A bill is now pending before this body for the reimbursement of the state

So that the integrity of these Modoc war accounts have been twice established by commanding authority, once by the legislature of Oregon and once by the inspector general of the United States army approved by the secretary of war acting by authority of congress

The inspector general cut down the rates of pay allowed by the state to volunteers and their horses and transportation etc but his action in no way effected the integrity of the accounts This charge against me therefore vanishes

THE THIRTY SIX HUNDRED DOLLARS AND THE EIGHTEEN HUNDRED DOLLARS.

As to these sums stated as overpaid to the secretary of state and his assistant, I know nothing except that I have heard that they were paid under specific appropriations for that purpose and attacked by the committee on technical grounds But in no manner do they affect me as I had no more authority as executive over this subject than the president of the United States has over the employment and pay of clerks in this body is stated to be a deficiency in school funds in the hands of Thomas H. Cann, who was clerk of the board of school land commissioners His accounts were all duly settled before the legislature every two years while I was governor and found correct. He writes me that his accounts are correct now of Oregon are in the hands of the state treasurer and of the several county treasurers and are under the general supervision of the board of school land commissioners Those officers negotiate the public loans with as much care and under as strict provisions of law as real estate loans are made in any other state, and there has been no greater depression of real estate values in that state than in any other It is the merest demagogism to attempt to cast upon any set of public officers in any state the fault of depreciating securities which rest mainly for their support upon the general prosperity Yet the statement that school mortgage securities in Oregon are not worth fifty cents on the dollar is grossly and utterly untrue.

THE SCHOOL FUNDS

I have myself had one of the loans, but it was based on the soundest security and has been fully repaid with interest I have been interested in two other loans of this kind as a stockholder in corporations connected with them but all the loans which I had any connection with were duly made and fully secured according to law and were duly reported to the legislature of 1876, which elected me a member of this body Had there been anything wrong in any of these matters I could not have been elected Mr President this committee though composed of persons of known hostility to myself are not chiefly responsible for this report They were selected as persons capable of being manipulated by men who for years have been my personal enemies who, having failed to defeat me in open field and fair contest seek now my destruction by discharging this missile of their venom from secure ambush in the distance. But their work is overstrained and it will fail

The state of Oregon, sir is in as good financial and economic condition as any state in the union and in far better condition than a great majority of states

Its current expenses are paid by a tax of four mills on the dollar of taxable property It has no bonded debt of any kind either state county or city while its outstanding warrants on the treasury do not exceed $200 000 with $100 000 usually carried in the treasury as a margin on various accounts This treasury statement is not exact but it is approximate The state is virtually out of debt except limited liabilities which were contracted to be paid out of the internal improvement and swamp land land sales which are in course of liquidation in that way

The state capitol and penitentiary are erected Their buildings are of ample size and permanent and enduring structures We have schools and churches everywhere The people are vigorous industrious enterprising, frugal and happy and they look forward to a pleasing and flattering future of a great state and I repel this slander upon them and me

CONFEDERIT X ROADS (Which is in the State uv Kentucky) Dec 23, 1878—I don't want no Senatorial Committee down here I don't want nobody pryin around bringin' niggers up to testify ez to wat they know about eleckshuns and votin an sich Niggers is prejudist and their mental vishuns is distorted They don't understand pelytix, and have very dim and confoosed notions of relijun Ther ain't a nigger near the Corners wich don't firmly beleeve that the Fifteenth Amendment means that they shel hev the rite to vote, unfettered and unhampered and that they hev the rite to vote ez they please They can't be made to understand that the sooperior intelligence that lays mostly around Bascom's wuz designed by Providence to guide and direct em and that they ought to be thankful that it is here to keer for em.

To put niggers onto the stand for examinashen is to convict ourselves Thar aint ez many uv us to swear ez there wuz the mornin uv the eleckshun but there is enuff.

That the country shall hev the troo inward bis uv what did reely happen eleckshen day, I hev already held an examinashun and here it is

Issaker Gavitt sworn Wuz present at the poles last eleckshun day, and hed votid Come without my double barreled shotgun for did not anticipate trouble uv any kind Hed understood that the niggers hed all agreed to vote the straight Dimecratic tikket, in wich case wood ez soon they wood vote ez not Luther encouraged em Remember acceptin an invitashun to take suthin with one uv em and wood hev accepted invitashuns with all uv em Am fast losin the prejudis wich every white man hez agin color Hev got so that I kin tolerate a nigger, with money ef he is libral Two uv em hed votid (them wuz the two Republiken tikkits wich wuz found in the box) when we diskivered that every one uv em hed Republiken tikkits, in stid uv Dimekratic and that they purposed to vote em Felt naterally enraged Desired the niggers away from the winder and held the poles closed Rushed home and got my shotgun ... Deekin Pogram and Capt McPelter and the rest uv us Immejitly notified the niggers that this kind uv a thing wouldn't do and that while we desired em to exercise their rights they must exercise em in accordence with the ... uv the dominant race and ... Otherwise they coodn't ... The wuz some trouble ... perhaps eventually ... can't state exactly how many wuz killed ez he didn't count em

Bleeves ... President Hayes ... appointment uv Mosby ... Hongkong Thinks it would be a grate ... are uv pastheashen ef he Gavitt ... be appointed to suthin

Deekin Pogramme testified to about the same thing that Issaker did Wuz willin that the niggers should ... only vote the Dimekratic tikket Hed overcome the prejudis every Cawcashun wuz bound to hev agin the inferior race, but shood insist alluz that the inferior race shood be guided and directed by the sooperior Ef the sooperior race wants to vote the Dimekratic tikket the inferior must do likewise ... Otherwise we can't let em vote We shel insist on hevin em counted in when we make up our Congressional representashun but we must control ther votes Otherwise the Hated North would hev the bulge on us Approves the President's policy espeshelly his appointment uv Mosby ez minister or whatever it is to Hong Kong Nothin so conciliates the southern mind ez an appointment Would like to hev it tried on hisself

Col McPelter testified to shootin perhaps seven or eight uv em Bleeved he wuz justified and appeeled to the northern sense uv ... Hed the niggers voted the Republikan tikkit it wood hev botherd us to elect the Dimekratic tikkit suthin that the Corners alluz hed done and allez expectid to do Coodent and woodent stand innovtashuns Ef the niggers want to vote let em vote rite and ther will be no objecksh ... to it Otherwise we can't permit it

I didn't consider it necessary to take any more testimony But this I hed sworn to before Bascom who sealed it offishally with the end uv a whisky glass and I shel forrerd it to Blane I hope it will hev proper effeck I hope the north will see that we desire to recognize the amendments, and that we are willin to go jist ez fur ez possible We must however preserve the integrity uv the old Democratic party and must retane our majorities When this is understood, ther will be no more trouble. When the nigger gits into the proper frame uv mind uv votin ez we want him to, all the bother will end and ther will be thet espeshel kind uv peace that we desire Otherwise there will be more worry and more trubble

SENATOR GROVER'S "EXPLANATION.

We print the full text of Mr Grover's speech, delivered in the senate some days since in attempted vindication of himself and his administration from the findings of the legislative committee of investigation. The very best way it can be answered is to place it entire before the people of the state, and give them opportunity to dissect it. It is not too much to say that every single paragraph is disingenuous and evasive. As an answer to the report of the committee, no part of it will bear examination. It bears in every part traces of Grover's peculiar intellectual methods. Evidently he prepared it with great care, and his study was how not to meet fully and fairly the report of the committee, but how to make statements which should bear on their outward parts some semblance of truth, but which yet should carefully avoid going deep enough into the subject to allow the superficial reader to see what the author did not want to disclose. Before any kind of critical examination, the whole fabric of his pretended defence disappears. His attempt is to conceal the facts behind mere generalities, quoting the statutes, not for elucidation of the subject, but as a kind of mask to obscure the view, divert attention and cloak transactions for which there was really no authority of law, and through which large sums of money were either recklessly or corruptly squandered. Besides these equivocations, there are many direct misstatements of fact. He begins with a defence of the board of school land commissioners in the matter of management of swamp lands, asserting that everything was properly done, and that the board of which he was president made report to the legislature in 1872 and again in 1874, and that the whole was fully approved. Here at the very outset is a totally unfounded statement. So far as the swamp land transactions were concerned, and on that part of the subject Grover speaks more specifically than on any other, no report was made to the legislature of 1872. No committee was appointed, and consequently there was neither approval nor examination. This is a matter of fact verified by the record. Grover of course well knows that no report was made to the legislature of 1872 on this subject. The first matter of record which the late committee was able to find was dated September 28, 1872, some time after the meeting of the legislature of that year. Consequently this statement by Mr. Grover is wholly without truth. It is also untrue that any report of the accounts and vouchers was made to the legislature of 1874. There was a statement that up to that time the sum of $13,957 85 had been received on account of swamp lands, of which amount $7,127 29 had been expended in surveying and selecting these lands. Most of this sum, it was afterwards ascertained, was paid to a few persons who had pretended to make surveys; but the governor did not comply with the law. He did not employ suitable persons to make these surveys, as the statute required. Not one surveyor was employed in the whole lot. Besides, the law carried with it no appropriation for this disbursement. No part of the twenty per cent. required to be paid on the lands could be lawfully used until an appropriation had been made by the legislature on an estimate submitted for that purpose. Grover appointed men to make the surveys, every one of whom was notoriously incompetent for the work. Of all the appointees, Barker, Miller, Amis, Schutz, Clark, Gates and Abbott, not one had any knowledge whatever of the duties required. These men were all paid, not by warrant drawn on appropriation made by the legislature, but by the clerk of the board, out of moneys received by him from sales of land; and no report of his transactions in this respect has ever been submitted to the legislature, Grover's statement to the contrary notwithstanding. Will any one undertake to say in his behalf where such report is to be found? Again, all payments for clerical aid from September, 1870, to September, 1872, were made not only without authority of law but in direct violation of law. See page 637 (section 35) of the code. This section directly forbids the employment of clerical aid until an estimate has first been submitted to the legislature and an appropriation made. Grover also says that many of these surveys have been proven in the surveyor general's office and adopted by the United States. This is also untrue. No one of these surveys made by state agents has yet been approved by the general land office; though it is probable that if Grover had exhibited the same zeal during the two years he has been at Washington that he showed in appointing and paying agents to make the selections, the state would now have clear titles to large bodies of the lands on which so much money has been paid out. He says the board ruled that the law carried its own appropriation with it. The board acted as if the law carried the moneys received from sales, to the board, to be expended without any accountability whatever. This is the very point in the ruling of the board to which the late committee made most objection. The board could "rule" anything, as they did not report their transactions to the legislature, and kept no record to be submitted, from September, 1874, to September, 1878. Grover's statement that money could be paid out by the board without interposition of the treasury, and that the like is done every day by both state and national governments, is so ridiculously absurd and false that he must himself have known as much when he uttered it. No doubt it would be edifying to congress and to the secretary of the treasury to learn that payments are being made daily through the agents of the national government without appropriations, and without interposition of the treasury. Suppose there were no appropriation to pay postmasters and collectors, does any body suppose they could pay themselves and employes out of money coming into their hands? They might be receiving millions of dollars annually, and yet could not touch one penny. By our constitution the state treasurer is made keeper of the public funds, and it is declared by that instrument itself that no money shall be drawn out but in pursuance of appropriation made by law. Hence the clerk of the board positively had no authority to disburse funds, being under no bond or other obligation, yet he held large sums in his possession, and paid out other large sums on no lawful authority. Some of the amounts paid far exceeded what could have been paid for any honest service, which fact would have been discovered at once had the transactions been reported to the legislature. Among them were payments to J. N. T. Miller of over $9,000, which were neither certified nor receipted, and $5,610 to J. N Barker, who seems to have got this money only because he was brother in law of a member of the board. Grover says that if these things were true he could not have been elected. Had he stated that he could not have been elected had they been known, he would have but the exact truth. But he and his associates purposely kept them concealed, and they never were known till this committee unearthed them. Nor could they ever have been reached by any committee until there was a change of administration. He further says the clerk's accounts were all duly settled before the legislature every two years, and that the clerk writes him that they are all correct now. In fact, however, his accounts never were reported to the legislature, were not settled every two years, and are not now settled. So much for the swamp lands.

The committee have not charged that Grover had anything to do with the allowance of illegal fees to sheriffs for conveying convicts to the state's prison and insane persons to the asylum. On that point he denies with unnecessary vehemence. The censure of the committee for these acts fell on the late secretary of state. But the committee do report that Grover certified a voucher presented by E D. Foudray for returning S. E May, a fugitive from justice, from Utah, well knowing that said voucher was for an amount far in excess of what was allowed by law. Grover's certificate was not necessary in a matter of this kind, and in this case it was merely part of a scheme through which an unlawful payment of a large sum was secured.

In regard to the expenditures for the Modoc war and the report made by the committee that stores were never accounted for to the state, Grover makes a defence which is even more lame than that on swamp land transactions. We shall soon see the vouchers, which will appear with the full report of the committee. Grover was one of the auditing board on those expenses, but gave the matter little or no attention. The board audited and passed all that were presented by the agent of the claimants, Quincy A. Brooks. This is shown by the testimony of James Walton, who was clerk of the auditing board. Great effort is made by Grover to prove by the report of Gen. Hardie of the United States army that the report of the committee on this branch of the subject is false. But let it be observed that the statements of Gen Hardie do not touch the points at issue at all. It was no part of his business to inquire whether the state property had been reported or accounted for. A recent letter from Roseburg, printed in THE OREGONIAN, meets the question exactly. And since this letter has attracted much attention, and some question has been raised as to its authorship, we have permission to inform all whom it may concern that it was written by Gen. Joseph Lane. We quote from that letter:

> We have confidence in the honor, capacity and integrity of the investigating committee, and believe that, in regard to the quartermaster's accounts and returns, they did not fall into error, but reported the facts as they found them. Nothing like all the property purchased by quartermasters has been accounted for, nor in my judgment ever will be. One tells us that Gen. Hardie thoroughly investigated these claims and recommended their payment. Well, we are obliged to Gen Hardie. He was on special duty when at such work, outside of his regular line of duty. But army officers generally understand the duties of the various branches of the service, consequently he was qualified to pass upon the Modoc war claims; he did his duty, and before now congress ought to have passed a law to pay the claims as recommended by Hardie. But did he say that he had examined the quartermaster's accounts and returns, and had found all state property correctly and properly accounted for? Not at all. So far as he was concerned, he had just as soon the state would lose the property not then accounted for as not. That was no business of his. He only passed upon what was manifest, and not upon what was not, and made no remarks upon what he did not see, nor could be seen, and has not up to this time been accounted for, and perhaps will not be.

This is so conclusive an answer to this part of Grover's speech that not another word need be said. We pass to what he says about loans from the educational funds.

He asserts that the board negotiated loans of these funds with as much care as business men evince in management of their own funds, and that no greater losses occur in these loans than are suffered by individuals in their own business. There is remarkable hardihood in a statement like this, since he knows well that fully one-half the loans made by the board while he was a member of it are notoriously unsafe, and some of them lost altogether—to say nothing of the losses suffered by the fund from loans in which he had an individual interest. He says he was a member of two incorporations which borrowed these funds. He might have added that he was the sole stockholder in one of them, and that the corporation was formed for the single purpose of getting money through himself from the educational funds, because he well knew he could not obtain it on such security in any other way. He might have remarked also that through the other loan the state has lost fully $10,000, that the security would not have been taken by any business man in the state for half the amount, and that the loan never would have been made had not the money been finding its way into his own pocket.

Not the least unfounded assertion in his speech is the pretence that the committee was "set up" by his enemies, and that its members are persons of known hostility to him. We have heretofore examined this extraordinary statement. If the committee's report stood on weak foundations there might be plausibility in the assertion that injustice was intended. But what is to be done with the facts on which the report is based? There they are, and there they will remain. The people of Oregon have long known that Grover was at the head of a most extravagant and corrupt administration, and they know that to this administration is chargeable the unconstitutional debt of the state and the special taxes which it has been found necessary to levy to meet it. The report of the committee only furnishes specific information about a general fact which has long been within public knowledge, and the whole people of Oregon (except a few partisan favorites) in consequence thereof are "personal enemies" of Mr. Grover in the same sense as the members of this committee. That is to say, they condemn his administration and look on him as unworthy of the trusts he has held at their hands.

MUCH TRUTH IN FEW WORDS.

On Wednesday there was a good deal of unpleasantness in the house of representatives between northern and southern Democrats. Bragg of Wisconsin, who was among the first to enter the Union army at the outbreak of the war and the last to retire from the field at its close, in which service he rose by regular gradations to the rank of brigadier general, is one of the few "War Democrats" now in congress, and was re-elected last fall for the next house by a very large majority. In the debate on Wednesday Gen. Bragg talked out in plain language. The southern claim bill was before the house, and Bragg in opposing it remarked that "if the south was solid for the purpose of getting money out of the national treasury it would be well for the northern Democracy if the southern Democrats went over to the Republicans, and he hoped they would do so." He also called upon southern members who wanted money out of the treasury for the south to remember that it "cost billions of money to put down the rebellion." And he plumply told them that "the people of the country felt that they could not trust the treasury and the interests of the country with the Democratic party, with the danger of the Democrats of the north selling out body and soul to the Democrats of the south." As a clincher he remarked that the Democratic party "had no need of the class of gentlemen whom they could hold only by giving them all they wanted." In this plain talk Gen Bragg exactly set forth the greatest impediment to the success of the Democratic party. It produced a sensation among the southern members, and two or three of them made attempts to reply. But no reply is possible to so courageous and truthful an exposition. A solid south solid for such purposes as Gen Bragg denounced, is fatal to Democratic hopes in the northern states.

"It brags daily on its commercial reports, which are as great a fraud as any other portion of its matter, since the larger part of them is clipped from San Francisco and other distant papers, and has no relation whatever to Oregon trade." This is the manner in which the Telegram punctures a wind bag which the Standard blows up every day. We may add that its column of matchless "commercial news" which it printed yesterday consisted of an extract from the Santa Barbara (Cal. Press, a portion of a New York trade circular and some remarks from an "eastern exchange" on wool. And this is the way in which those wondrous reports are usually made up. We say this only because it is a proper rejoinder to pretensions thrust forward persistently with nothing to support them.

Grover, in his attempted defense, said that the current expenses of the state of Oregon are paid by a tax of four mills on the dollar. In this way he sought to convey the impression that he had given the state an economical administration. It is just like Grover. Of course while he was boasting that a tax of four mills paid "current expenses," he omitted to say that a heavy special tax has been necessary since the year 1876, to pay the unconstitutional debt which was the result of his extravagant and corrupt administration. This is a specimen of the tergiversations of his whole "defense."

Ex-Sheriff John T. Apperson of Clackamas has transmitted to Gov. Thayer the sum of $11.10, reported by the investigating committee to have been overdrawn by him for conveying convicts to the state's prison. Mr. Apperson says that though he believed he was entitled by law to the money, he returns it because he would rather have less than the law allows than to claim one cent to which he is not legally entitled. Here is an honorable example. What have the others who were named by the committee to say?

OF THE NORTHWEST!

To be held at the Palace Billiard Rooms, Portland, Ogn.

COMMENCING FEBRUARY 15, 1879,

Rules Governing said Tournament.

RULE 1. The game to be played shall be a French Carom, 100 points, known as the "Three Ball Game."

2. In order for a person to be a contestant in said Tournament, he shall be a resident of the North west Six Months prior to the date of said Tournament.

3 A referee shall be elected, and all or any disputes arising in such game or games shall be referred to him, and his decision, when rendered, shall be final.

4, In all games during the Tournament the Crotch shall be barred.

5 No player shall be allowed to withdraw from said games until the game is out, by so doing he forfeits the game

6. The referee in said games is hereby authorized to have expelled from the hall at the request of either player, any person who shall be guilty of disorderly conduct, or who shall by action or utterances endeavor to disconcert or assist a player.

7. There shall be two separate prizes, viz: The first prize to be the Champion Cue of the Northwest, to be awarded to the winner; and the second, a purse to be given to the player making the best average.

8 The winner of the Champion Cue shall be entitled to hold it for one year, but after that time any person eligible to play in this Tournament, (viz: having resided in the Northwest Six Months prior to the expiration of said year), can have the right to challenge the holder of said Cue, accompanied by a wager of $100, to play a match game for the Champion Cue.

9. After the winner of said Champion Cue has held it one year, any eligible player (see rule 8) has thirty days in which to challenge said winner; but should no challenge be made him within said thirty days, the Cue then becomes the property of said holder.

10 The winner of said Champion Cue shall be and is hereby required to give bonds in the sum of $150 that he will not dispose or convert to his own use said Cue until he becomes the owner according to rule 9. Should the holder of said Cue dispose of it in any way before he becomes the rightful owner, the bonds are forfeited

The time for commencing said tournament will be on saturday evening, February 15, 1879, at the Palace Billiard Rooms, Stark street, between Front and First

The Tournament will be managed and conducted by Mr Elston, who has kindly accepted the position.

Entries.

Entries will be open until Monday, 10th of February at 12 o clock M

FRIDAY MORNING, JAN. 24 1879.

CITY.

CHINESE NEW YEAR.—The Chinese of this city celebrated their New Year last evening with all the rattle and bang which their religion makes necessary, and which, we may add, is contrary to every civilized notion of propriety. Their noisy demonstrations being justly regarded by the chief of police as annoying to the public, were prohibited during the first and second days of the New Year; but yesterday attorneys representing the Chinese firms of the city called upon Chief Besser and informed him that in anticipation of festivities on this occasion, and thinking that their customs would be allowed this year as in the past, they had imported large quantities of firecrackers, etc., and that his prohibitory order worked hardship upon them in making this stock, procured at great expense, unsalable and valueless. In consideration of this statement, Mr. Besser issued an order allowing crackers to be discharged between the hours of 6:30 and 9:30 last night, and 6:15 to 6:15 this morning. Hence the racket as aforesaid The heathen threw into the noise last night all the pent up enthusiasm which had been longing for utterance during the days previous, and the result was a tremendous and earsplitting roar. These demonstrations will not be permitted in the future.

THE SULLY AMATEURS.—In speaking of the dramatic entertainment given last Monday evening at the Oak Grove theater, the Vancouver paper says: The parts were all well sustained, while Lieut Ebstein and Mrs. Beard maintained their well acquired reputations in previous performances. Lack of space prevents the extended notice that the occasion merits. Following is the programme: Betsy Baker—"Mr. Marmaduke Mouser," Lieut. Ebstein; "Mr. Crummey," Lieut. Bonesteel; "Mrs. Mouser," Mrs. Ebstein; "Betsy Baker, the laundress," Mrs. Beard. Box and Cox—"Mr. Box," Lieut. Shofner; "Mr. Cox," Mr. Bachelder; "Mrs. Bouncer," Mrs. Bachelder.

A SERIOUS FALL.—A carpenter, whose name we have been unable to ascertain, met with a very heavy fall yesterday while working on a new building on the corner of Fourth and E streets. He was engaged in putting on the last course of shingles when the scaffolding gave way suddenly, precipitating him to the ground, a distance of about twenty feet. He struck on his back and sustained severe injuries. The violence of the fall stunned the workman for a few moments, but he soon came to himself, and was assisted to his home by several of his fellow workmen. It is thought his injuries are not very dangerous.

KILLED IN A SILVER MINE.—Letters received at the office of the Monumental Silver Mining Company yesterday give an account of an accident, resulting in the death of John Motley, on the 15th inst. It appears that Motley was drilling in drift on ledge No. 4, and the drill coming in contact with a cartridge of Giant powder exploded it, causing his instant death. The shot took effect in his left side, near the abdomen literally tearing the poor fellow to pieces. The deceased had been at work only a few weeks at the mine; was an old resident of Grant county. He leaves a wife and two children.

LARGE COUGAR KILLED.—A few days ago as Mr. Brooks, of Bush Prairie, Clarke county, W. T., was returning home to his farm, he observed a large cougar in his pasture, lying beside a sheep it had killed. He went to his house and returned immediately with his gun, firing at the beast as it was about leaving. It dropped and died, and when examined it was found to be killed by one No. 4 shot which passed through the heart. The beast measured 7 feet from the nose to the tip of the tail, and looked as though a man ought to have considerable pluck to attack it with a shotgun.

WANTS ARREST.—A few days ago an account was published in regard to the elopement of a man named Wm. J. Riley with a Mrs. Swett of this city. The couple left here on the steamer Oregon and arrived in San Francisco several days ago. The deserted husband immediately took steps to have the "false fleeting" Riley arrested. We understand that Riley has been arrested and is now held in custody awaiting the arrival of a requisition from the governor of this state, when he will be brought back to Portland.

FROM ASTORIA.—The following dispatch was received yesterday from Messrs. Trenchard & Upshur: The steamer Idaho left for sea at 8:30 and crossed out at 10 A. M. The bark Reial, from San Francisco, arrived at Knappton at 2 P. M. The British ship Narnshire left for sea at 11 A. M. and anchored at Fort Stevens. At 2 P. M. the weather was cloudy, tide high, bar rough and light west wind.

FIRE ALARM.—Last evening about 8:30 an alarm of fire was sounded which brought out the department. The alarm was caused by the burning out of a chimney flue of a Chinese shanty on the north side of Alder between First and Second streets. There was no necessity for calling to aid the services of the department. No damage.

BRITISH SHIP ALLEGIANCE.—Lloyd's agents, J. C. Janion & Co., called a survey upon the British ship Allegiance, which vessel touched upon the sands in the neighborhood of Chinook spit, and she was pronounced by the surveyors to be tight, staunch and strong, and not in the least damaged.

CLOTH STOLEN.—While Mr. John O'Neil, the clothier, was in the tailoring room in the rear of his store, for a few moments last evening, a quantity of fine cloth worth about $200 was taken from the front room. There is no clue whatever to the identity of the thief.

TEACHING MUSIC.—Mrs. Caroline Richings-Bernard who, it will be remembered, visited Portland about two years ago, with an opera company, has, we learn, retired from the lyric stage, and is at present engaged in teaching music in Baltimore, Maryland.

BUOY.—Says the Vancouver Independent: The O. S. N. Co.'s buoy, placed on a bar near Parker's landing, was brought down by the ice, and now lies below the island. It will be taken up and put in its proper place.

Respectfully submitted,

THEODORE WYGANT,
Jan. 23, 1879. Treasurer.

After a thorough examination of the above we report the same correct.

E. MENDENHALL,
A. W. WITHERELL,
I. KAUFMAN,
Finance Committee.

The reports of the secretary and treasurer were referred to the committee on finance, and the committee reported that they were correct. Reports accepted and filed.

The committee on certificates having reported favorably on the applications of John Brendle, of No. 2, and P. Selling, of Vigilance H & L Co., for exempt certificates, and of Hugh Mahon and R. Tyner, members elect of No. 4, the report was adopted and the certificates granted.

A communication from No. 2, announcing the names of four members designated by said company to act as fire police, was read and placed on file.

The following resolution was read and unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the thanks of this board are due and are hereby tendered to Joseph Bachman, Wm. Church, Jr., and Theo. Wygant Esqrs., for the able, upright and impartial manner in which they have discharged the duties devolving upon them as president, secretary and treasurer of the board during the past year.

After a few appropriate remarks by the president congratulating the members upon the harmony and success which have characterized the proceedings of the board during the past year, and thanking the members for their uniform courtesy to the chair, the board adjourned.

AMUSEMENTS.

THEATER.—Last evening Augustin Daly's great sensational play of "Under the Gaslight" was produced at New Market Theater.

MATINEE.—To-morrow afternoon a grand matinee performance will be given for the accommodation of ladies and the little folks. The ever popular Irish drama "Arrah na Pogue" will be repeated. Saturday night "Under the Gaslight" for the last time.

MISS WALTERS' BENEFIT.—To night Miss Walters a very thorough and painstaking actress will be the recipient of a complimentary benefit at New Market Theater. Aside from the deserving object a very excellent programme will be rendered which is worthy of liberal patronage. A grand comedy bill will be presented. Miss Walters will assume the character of "Mrs. Ormsby Delamayne" in the very ludicrous comedy "Serious Family." Following this will be "An object of Interest" in which Miss Walters will appear and give imitations of notable actors and actresses. During the evening other attractive features will be presented, among which may be mentioned a Spanish Song by Miss Edgar, and the "Mulligan Guards" by Miss Wade. Socially and professionally Miss Walters has made a host of friends in Portland during her sojourn and there is every reason to predict a crowded house.

The people appreciate low prices and good work by patronizing liberally, Abell the photographer, whose display speaks for itself. Don't forget the place.

Never go to a second class gallery for a photograph, you will have to pay the same price that Buchtel charges for first class work.

Dr H. F. Adams, the eye and ear and chronic disease physician, is still at the St. Charles Hotel, Portland.

Ladies' Woolen Stockings, 25 cents a pair, at Mrs. Charles Tichnor's, corner First and Yamhill streets, Portland.

For a nice fitting and stylish suit, ladies be sure to call at the popular IXL, 151 Third st., near Morrison.

Ladies who want stylish ready made suits, call at Mrs. Pilger's, the leading dress maker of Portland. Alder street, near First.

For the Kidneys and Bladder, Damiana Bitters. Fleckenstein & Mayer are sole agents.

Dr. D. Siddall, Dentist; rooms over the bank, French's building, The Dalles, Or.

THE GEM, ASTORIA.—Connected with Peter Wilhelm's, Astoria, is a Ship Masters' Reading Room, where the latest shipping papers are on file. Also Homeward and Outward Bound List. Western Union Telegraph Office next door.

INTERESTING TO LADIES.—Dickey's "Creme de Lis" has now been before the public for ten years, during which time this beautiful preparation has met with the highest approval at the hands of the fair sex—being as all who have used it will verify, the only perfect preparation of its kind. Every ingredient entering the composition of Dickey's "Creme de Lis" is subjected to the most rigid test of modern Chemistry, to insure the uniformity and purity of its combination, and neither time nor expense have been spared to make it perfect—it being well known the public will appreciate and support a truly meritorious article. Several new beautifiers under various names have lately started into existence, but Dickey's "Creme de Lis" has no competition in merit. Sold by all druggists.

CLOSING MEETING IN Y. M. C. A. HALL.

The goodly number who faced the storm and came to the rooms of the Y. M. C. A. on Wednesday evening last were richly rewarded, Doctor Lindsley speaking with unusual power. He replied to some written questions addressed to himself touching the pardon of sinners by our Saviour before His resurrection. This had been a former topic of the Doctor's in an address given a short time since in the rooms. While he was speaking, we wished every tried and tempted one,—those tossed about with every wind of doctrine,—those seeking rest and finding none, the weary, heavy laden ones,—God only knows the multitude of all these in Portland! might be hearing the priceless words that fell from the Doctor's lips; priceless, because they were inspired by Christ's own life and words. And now we understand that there is prospect that this evening may close the series of twelve weeks' work in the Y. M. C. A. rooms. Many are feeling, we have been told, that before the union services now in progress are closed there should be united effort in our churches. Definite action will be had to-night in reference to this. Come, then, to what in all probability will be the last one of the union meetings in the Y. M. C. A. hall; last, not through lack of attendance or interest, but for the reason stated. Many will sorrow over the closing of this series of meetings, but if our churches will take up the work so auspiciously commenced, surely there can be no question as to the propriety of doing so. Let all come who feel that they have been specially helped by these meetings, come for a parting blessing.

Rev. J. A. Cruzan will conduct appropriate services for this meeting. M. C. W.

MILITARY ITEMS.

[Vancouver Independent.]

Major D. H. Hancock, 2d infantry, and Lieut. M. C. Wilkinson, 3d infantry, paid the garrison a visit this week.

Paymaster Eaton, U. S. A., was at the post last week Thursday, and paid off the troops for November and December.

Lieut. C. E. S. Wood, 21st infantry, aide-de-camp to Gen. Howard, and bride, returned from the east by the Elder. They are the guests of Gen. Howard.

The new military post recently established by Lieut. Rheem in Kittitass valley is in a beautiful grove about thirty miles west of Priest's rapids, well watered by crystal streams.

The "Pacific Minstrels," an amateur organization composed entirely of soldiers, gave their opening performance at the Oak Grove Theater last evening. The performers acquitted themselves very creditably, and their large audience appeared much pleased.

The Piute Indian prisoners which are being removed from Camp Harney to the Yakima reservation are expected to arrive at The Dalles to day (Friday). The prisoners are guarded by two companies of cavalry, under command of Capt. W. H. Winters. General Howard, accompanied by Gen Sawtelle, Col. Sullivan and Capt. Sladen, of his staff, left for The Dalles Thursday morning, on business connected with these prisoners.

Price 25 cents. Beware of imitations. Ask for Henry's Carbolic Salve, and take no other.

GONE TO MEET KEARNEY.

Mrs. Minnie Myrtle Logan on the Rostrum in the Bay City.

Stephen Maybell, who used to live in East Portland, and who was a poet and painter, that is, he could white-wash a fence or write rhyme, had a benefit at the Young Men's Christian Association hall, in San Francisco, last week, and among the notables who took part in the exercises of the evening, was a lecture by Mrs. Logan, better known in Oregon as Minnie Myrtle Miller. She aimed to reply to Henry Ward Beecher's lecture on the "Ministry of Wealth and the Reign of the Common People." Her speech is reported in the "Call" as follows:

Mrs Logan said: The very dogs bark at the ragged man. All nature cries out against poverty. Why is it that in a land of plenty want and poverty should be heard of on every hand? That with all these vacant lots and houses in our cities the multitude are houseless and homeless? Why is it that the greater portion of mankind lives in constant want? These questions may be partially answered by one little word—greed. Wealth has a tendency to make a man grasping, mercenary and selfish. [What cares the hardened millionaire for a world of misery? What cares he for the agonies of the houseless and hungry? He will make the more money out of their sufferings. This misery will never reach him, for he has plenty There is no law to protect us against the greed of this man. He is grasping acres of city lots; he pays scarcely any taxes. This is the man who tries to

GRIND THE COMMON PEOPLE

Down into slavery, and earnestly advocates cheap labor. I should define slavery as cheap labor, for slavery is simply cheap labor, and cheap labor is simply slavery. In the olden time the master used the lash on the back of his bondmen. To-day capital holds the lash above the toiling millions, and says "Work, work harder, work longer, work cheaper, or starve." This threat is a lash that an angel might dread Our modern slavery leaves a man to commit suicide or go to the poorhouse. Let the fact sink deep into your hearts that the ministry of wealth is ruin. Let the common people reign. Some claim that the accumulation of wealth is an evidence of superiority This is a sophistry. Was Crœsus, the richest man of antiquity, the greatest man of his age? Was he noble in anything except his riches? Are misers renowned for their culture and scientific attainments? Are men of scientific attainments or extraordinary talents celebrated for the amount of their wealth? No, no. On the contrary poverty has been the lot of many of our greatest poets, our most powerful statesmen and most wonderful geniuses. Many of them have lived and died poor. Charles Dickens has drawn some of his finest pictures from the sufferings of the poor. In fact, the ministry of wealth has resulted in misery and woe. The ministry of wealth is inconsistent. It depreciates any combination or union among laborers, and yet its whole existence is a combination of unions and monopolies.] Here the lecturess read several extracts from speeches of prominent orators and the editorials of some leading newspapers animadverting severely upon the working classes. She earnestly advocated extreme agrarian principles, insisted that a man's property should revert to the state and touched on the Chinese question. She concluded as follows: "It is the condition of the common people that should be improved, and the proper distribution of wealth would promote the happiness and freedom of every individual in the land except the millionaire."

THE PETITION AGAINST GENERAL HOWARD.

The Boise City Statesman, in an article on the petition said to be in circulation in the "upper country" asking the removal of Gen. Howard from command of this department, says:

We are satisfied that this petition will find no signers among the people who know the man who has originated and who is circulating it, and none among those who take time to reflect upon the nature of such a step and its necessary consequences. The war department has long ago been thoroughly informed and advised as to Gen. Howard's conduct of military affairs in his district, and of all that has been said for or against him, and has positively nothing new to learn of the past by petition or otherwise. Even were it desirable to effect a change the method of attempting this by petition would be the least likely to succeed. The department will not entertain objections to an officer unless they come in the form of specific charges regularly made and preferred by those who are recognized as having authority to act in the premises. The only effect which this petition would have, however numerously signed, would be to dispose the war department and the military generally to look with disfavor upon the sections where the petition was signed and deprive those sections of the presence of United States troops, and send the troops where it might be judged they were equally needed and better appreciated. It is not necessary to be an admirer or supporter of General Howard to be able to perceive the extreme folly and injustice of this petition, both to General Howard and the people; and if the people are alive to their own interests they will go slow in signing a petition which has originated in a spirit of mean revenge on the part of one who has proven himself—by the verdict of all who knew anything about him and his acts—as totally unfit for the place he occupied and ran away from.

It would be surperfluous for us to advise the people as to the duty they owe themselves in this matter. If the people of Boise City, and of this section of Idaho, are prepared to antagonize the war department and the army, and desire to see Fort Boise abandoned as a military post, they could not devise a more effectual course than by signing this petition.

JURY LIST.

James A. Smith, county clerk, has drawn the following list of jurors, who are to render jury service at the coming term of the state circuit court, to meet in February:

BOUNDARIES OF ROAD DISTRICTS.

The county court, at its recent meeting, made the following order:

Now at this time it is ordered that the boundaries of road districts 3, 4, 5, 6 and 8 be amended so as to include within its boundaries the following blocks, situated in the city of Portland:

Road District No. 3.—All of blocks 26, 81, 40 and 60.

Road District No. 4.—All of blocks 39, 79, 1 and 78.

Road District No. 5.—All of blocks 2, 77, 3 and 76.

Road District No. 6.—All of blocks 4, 5, 75 and 74.

Road District No. 8.—All of blocks 6, 7, 73 and 72.

There is trouble about road tax in Walla Walla. One statute says that a tax shall be collected for road purposes, and another says that no such tax shall be levied.

Astonishing Success.

It is the duty of every person who has used Boschee's German Syrup to let its wonderful qualities be known to their friends in curing Consumption, severe coughs, Croup, Asthma, Pneumonia and in fact all throat and lung diseases. No person can use it without immediate relief. Three doses will relieve any case and we consider it the duty of all Druggists to recommend it to the poor dying consumptive, at least to try one bottle, as 40,000 dozen bottles were sold last year and no one case where it failed, was reported. Such a medicine as the GERMAN SYRUP cannot be too widely known. Ask your druggist about it. Sample Bottles to try sold at 10 cents. Regular size 75 cents. For sale by all druggists.

Dr. La Mar's Seminal Pills cure all cases of Seminal Weakness, Loss of Vigor, Nocturnal Emissions, Impotency, Nervous and Physical Debility, and all that class of complaints arising from Excess, Indiscretion or Abuse. NOTES FROM SEATTLE.

Our correspondent at Seattle, W. T., sends us the following notes under date of January 21st

The Eliza Anderson still remains at Maddock's wharf. She is offered for sale at reasonable figures.

There are 250 Chinamen in this city. We are in the midst of the din and smoke of their new year

A few new buildings are in process of erection but in the spring the improvements will be more extensive.

Mr. B. L. Northrup has been elected by the school directors as teacher of the public school in Belltown, vice Mr Frink, resigned.

The fine ship Josephus, Capt. Rogers, after a delay of three weeks, is under the coal chutes, and will be ready for sea in two or three days

Workmen are engaged in fixing up the corner room in Coleman's building on the corner of Mill and Commercial streets for banking purposes.

The territorial university, under the efficient management of President Anderson, is progressing finely. The number of pupils enrolled is 136.

Mr. John Nation has one of the most complete foundry and machine shops on this northwest coast. His splendid work is in demand far and near.

Work on the new route for the Seattle and Walla Walla railroad along the shore line leading out from Seattle, is well advanced, and will soon be ready for ties and rails.

Mr E. S. Phelps and daughter, of Iowa, are spending a few days with President Anderson, whose wife is a sister of Mr. Phelps. Mr. P. is well pleased with this new country.

Rev. P. C. Hetzler, agent of the American Bible Society, is now here looking after the varied interests of that useful society. Mr. H. is deservedly popular among all the churches.

Anxiety is felt to see the new city directory for 1879, which will soon be issued from the press. It will doubtless contain much valuable information which should be broadcast over the nation.

Lenny & White, proprietors of Puget Foundry, have recently cast a cylinder in two parts, weighing about 4,000 pounds. It was for the steamer Libby. This foundry is kept busy all the time with work of all kinds.

Hon. J. R. Lewis, whose term of office as chief justice is about to expire, has secured eligible rooms in Butler's building near the center of the city, where he will open a law office for the benefit of his future clients.

Postoffice clerks all over the land need to be watched, but not all of them deserve it in the commendable manner bestowed on Miss Myra Carr, the popular clerk in the postoffice of Seattle. It was a beautiful specimen of Elgin gold watches, the gift of her father.

NOTES FROM SALEM.

Our regular correspondent sends the following under date of January 23d:

Regular Webfoot weather.

The Willamette University is in a most prosperous condition.

Col. C. A. Reed of this city has been reappointed notary public

Deacon Hatch has contract for changing the treasurer's vault at the state house.

Hon. W. D. Pettinger of Washington county, is in the city. He brought over with him about $4,500 in state taxes.

Mrs. C. D. Snyder has the contract for binding the state documents and is busily engaged in fulfilling the same

Miles M Miller, formerly of this city, is keeping books for Hawley, Dodd & Co. at their branch house at Colfax, W. T.

The old wooden stairs on the west side of the state capitol have been removed and the main entrance is now immediately beneath their former site.

W. H. Watkinds has employed a competent assistant and is preparing a statement in reply to the report made by the investigating committee. He is balancing up his books preparatory to retiring from politics.

The Rogue River Hydraulic Gold Mining Company of Josephine county, has filed articles of incorporation; incorporators, W. F. Briggs, H. Hampton, R. A. Jones, Geo. W. Weidler, I. N. Muncy and others; capital stock, $500,000. Also the Stevedores, Longshoremen and Riggers Union of your city.

NOT AN ENOCH ARDEN CASE.

Some of the parties in the story told by a San Francisco exchange as follows, are well known in Oregon:

On the 11th instant Judge Dwinelle, of the 15th district court, granted a divorce to Mrs. Maggie Metcalf from Henry P. Metcalf, on the ground that she had a husband living at the time she was married to Metcalf, having been under the impression that he was dead. The particulars of the case have some remote resemblance to the pathetic scenes of Enoch Arden, but in this case the missing husband, instead of hastening to the dwelling place of his former partner and finding her domiciled under the roof of another man, appears to have exercised no extraordinary haste in seeking her out, preferring to wait until he was found himself. The story, as related to the court commissioner, was as follows:

THE FIRST MARRIAGE.

On the 7th of February 1861, Mrs. Metcalf was married to Walter J. Harding, at Cleveland, Ohio They had one child, a son. In 1870 Harding left his wife and migrated to Canada, where he appears to have remained some three years, and was next heard of from the Black Hills, where it was said he met with an accident that resulted in his death. During the time that he was away he never contributed anything towards the support of his wife and child, and it does not appear that he held any correspondence with them, the occasional and very meagre news which they received coming from other persons. At the Black Hills Harding, it was said, went to work in the mines, and the premature explosion of a powder blast seriously injured him. The son, who was living at Racine, Wisconsin, heard of the injuries received by his father, and transmitted an account of them to his mother, and subsequently informed her of his death. The latter report was confirmed by other parties, and Mrs. Harding believed herself to be a widow. She afterwards came to California, and on December 12, 1876, gave her hand in marriage to Henry P. Metcalf. The honeymoon passed joyously, and the horizon of her matrimonial life appeared clear and bright, when suddenly a shadow was cast upon it by the announcement that

HARDING STILL LIVED.

He had been seen up in Oregon by nephews and nieces who communicated the fact to their cousin, Harding's son, who immediately started on a journey up there to see if there was any truth in the story. He found his father in the flesh, but shockingly mangled and disfigured by the mine explosion. As soon as Mrs. Metcalf knew that her former husband was living, she took steps to have her marriage with Metcalf annulled, and such a decree has been entered. It is now probable she will institute proceedings for divorce from Harding for desertion, and then again be joined in wedlock to Metcalf, when freed from her former husband.

DR. MINTIE'S NEPHRETICUM

Works wonders. In all cases of Dropsy, Bright's Disease, Kidney, Bladder and Urinary Complaints, or Retention of Urine, are cured by the Nephreticum. Female Weakness, Gravel, Diabetes, pain in the back, side and loin are cured, when all other medicines have failed

See what the druggists of Portland and San Francisco say about Dr. Mintie's Nephreticum and English Dandelion Pills.

We have sold a large amount of Dr. Mintie's medicine, the English Dandelion Pills, also the famed Nephreticum, and in all cases highly recommended. John A. Childs, druggist, Second street, Portland, Oregon, C. H. Woodard & Co., Druggists, cor. First and Alder, Portland, Oregon; Messrs. Abrams & Carroll, Druggists, No. 3 and 5 Front, San Francisco. DR. D. HALL McLENNAN,

Vital Magnetic Healer,

Is now permanently located at
153 Fourth St., Corner of Morrison,
PORTLAND, OREGON.

Where those who are sick and need a physician should call on him, as he is performing cures by his natural powers of healing that has baffled all other methods of treatment. Invalids who have hitherto tried everything in vain should take courage, and leave off taking nauseating drugs in which are lurking the arrows of death, and try the living principles of Vital Magnetism, nature's mysterious gift to man. No medicine is used except when upon examination it is actually found to be wanting, and then only Herbal remedies, containing no mercury, calomel, or other poison. By this wonderful power of nature pain is removed in a few minutes, and broken down constitutions built up in a short time.

Physicians having in charge cases that resist the potency of drugs will confer a blessing on such by recommending them to this GREAT HEALER.

To parties not able to appear personally, he will send Magnetic paper and medicine with full directions.

Consultation either in person or by mail is free. Consult him, as it may be the means of restoring you to health and happiness.

The Doctor has permission to refer to the following well known parties who have been treated by him: A. H. Buckman, East Portland; A. S. Miller, of Messrs Miller & Sons, office cor. First and Morrison sts, Portland, residence, Salem, Oregon; H. P. Isaacs, Walla Walla; Morrison C. Athey, attorney at law, Oregon City; Mr. Geo. Harger, Portland. Many more might be given but space will not admit. Over 150 endorsements and references can be had upon application at my office.

All sick persons while from home and in Portland under my care are most tenderly watched over, and nothing is left undone which it is believed will tend to make their stay pleasant and their recovery rapid.

Invalids desiring rooms with the attention of competent nurses can be accommodated at my MAGNETIC INSTITUTE, 153 Fourth st., 2d door from Morrison, where I can be consulted daily, from 10 A. M. to 5 P. M. ja23

Gentle Women

Who want glossy, luxuriant and wavy tresses of abundant, beautiful Hair must use LYON'S KATHAIRON. CALIFORNIA
[illegible]

The Reliable Cure for Chronic Complaints of Liver and Kidneys.

THE ONLY THOROUGH BLOOD CLEANSER. The most pleasing, grateful and satisfactory Strengthening Balsam known, constantly effecting surprising cures of wasting or debilitating diseases and complaints arising from weak or impure blood, feeble circulation or impaired digestion, when all modes of treatment fail. It is of great benefit in threatened or actual consumption and heart disease, owing to its peculiar and great influence on the circulation. For the ills and weaknesses of women it is Nature's most suitable and reliable remedy.

LIVER--KIDNEYS.

Its regulating and strengthening action on these organs is different to and more desirable than that of any article heretofore in use; for indigestion, biliousness, etc., as a tonic, anti-malarial, etc., it is unequaled. While in chronic complaints it gives relief when all other remedies fail, and is frankly acknowledged to be the only cure for many chronic complaints of a complicated nature.

CATARRH.

The success of the CALIFORNIA ROOT TEA in curing Catarrh is proverbial, and surprises many who do not understand the nature of this terrible disease, which in most cases can be permanently cured only through the blood by a thorough course of this vegetable remedy, conceded to be the only thorough and permanent blood cleanser known, a course of it completely eradicating for all time the most virulent types of blood and skin diseases, rheumatism, etc. All who use it, leading druggists and physicians gladly attest its great sterling worth. Sold in its truly vegetable form, in packets at $1; each packet makes a quart of rich balsam, of which the dose is two spoonsful three times daily, making its cost much less than other medicines. Make like tea or put in wine, etc.; pleasant to take when nicely sweetened. It is nature's life-bearing balsam—its success assured in advance in all cases. Ask for it and take no drugs or disguised mercury. Six pkts, $5 00.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

Financial.

THURSDAY EVENING, January 23, 1879

Silver coin—2@2¼ per cent. discount.

SAN FRANCISCO Jan 23—Currency—99 95@par
Silver—97 60-100@98c.
Trade dollars—97¼@96
NEW YORK Jan 23—Silver bullion 1
5-20s of 1867 2 5s of 188 6
LONDON Jan 23—Consols 96 5-16, money
Silver 50¼
U S bonds—5s 1½s, 8

There is only a moderate inquiry for loans reported and this is promptly met at the same rates which have prevailed during the past three months. Silver coin is reported a little scarcer but the discount is still at 2@2½, or within that range. The call from those who are engaged in the buying and exportation of the surplus of grain of the country is somewhat irregular but the condition of financial matters is such that no trouble is had in securing sufficient funds for all the purposes of this trade.

General trade is dull nor is it anticipated that any marked revival will take place until the upper Columbia from which a large portion of the trade of this market is drawn is opened and the bad condition of the roads in this valley is improved by better weather.

Domestic Produce.

The receipts of articles of domestic production for the week ending to-day have been about equal to the preceding week. With a few exceptions quotations remain as before. A few choice lots of wheat have been sold at an advance of 2@3 cents per cental but most transactions have been made on the basis of $1 67@1 70. The receipts of flour have shown some increase, and shipments are in considerable volume to both foreign and domestic ports. Prices are steady at the quotations last given. Oats are in only moderate supply but advices from below discourage shippers, so that the home market is weaker though the local trade takes up most of the receipts and stocks are not accumulating. Some predictions are made that higher prices will rule before harvest and holders are indisposed to accept any reduction.

Hay, mill feed, etc., have been in light receipt but ample to meet the wants of the local trade. Potatoes are still held above the views of shippers who pay 75@80c per bushel. There is an active demand for onions, best qualities commanding as high as 7 cents per pound. Apples are coming forward somewhat sparingly and good shipping varieties readily bring the maximum quoted rates. Dried apples are very dull, and shippers generally decline to buy for the reason that the markets of demand are overstocked. Provisions continue dull without any noticeable change in quotations, with a light export and moderate jobbing trade. Eggs are weak at 25 cents per dozen and the market contains ample supplies to meet the demand. Poultry is plentiful and prices steady.

Hides are firm at our quotations and the receipts very light especially of such as are first class.

The following are the receipts of domestic produce for the week ending at noon to-day and the total since January 1

DR. PAUL M. BRENAN.

His Wonderful Success IN THE TREATMENT OF ALL Chronic and Recurrent Diseases.

He has astonished the People of this Coast by his skillful Operations.

HE HAS TAUGHT IN HIS public and private lectures the true principles of health and life to both male and female. He has also warned them against habits that would be likely to produce disease, in plain and comprehensive language. But where he has found them crushed and broken down by disease, mentally and physically, he has restored them to health and happiness for it is well understood that without health there can be no happiness.

DR. BRENAN has made a specialty in the treatment of the following diseases: Catarrh, Bronchitis, and all diseases of the throat and chest, by an entirely new system only known to himself. Diseases of the Kidneys and Urinary Organs, including Spermatorrhea Seminal Weakness or premature loss of Manhood. In the treatment of these diseases he has made a world wide reputation by his astonishing success not only on this Coast but throughout the whole United States. Diseases of the stomach, bowels liver and kidneys as well as all diseases of the blood and skin he has become master of, and never fails to give relief at once and permanently cures the case if he is applied to in time.

THE DOCTOR HAS GIVEN SPECIAL LECTURES to ladies only for years and is perfectly familiar with all female complaints, and understands their delicate and refined organization, as well as the proper remedies which should be used to allay their suffering and restore them to perfect health.

THE DOCTOR HAS THIS ADVANTAGE over most physicians—he can tell the patients disease the moment he comes in contact with them without any aid from the individual. This accounts in part for his great professional success.

All surgical operations can be performed by his skillful hand and the patient need not fear the result.

DR BRENAN will send to those living at a distance and who cannot well visit his office a list of Printed Questions and by the answers when filled out he can tell the disease as well as the proper treatment almost as well as seeing the patient personally, and will forward the proper medicines or instruments to any part of the country with full instructions and advice. Each letter requiring advice or list of questions, must contain two postage stamps. Everything strictly confidential and honorable.

THE DOCTOR has studied in the best Medical Schools in Europe and three years in the Jefferson Medical College at Philadelphia, as more than one of the Medical men of the Medical Faculty in this State can testify.

CAUTION. Persons coming to Portland, requiring medical treatment of the proper kind, who desire to consult with me will please beware of persons who may try to coax them away to other so-called Doctors through pretended friendship for the patients. Look out for them they are knaves prompted by selfish motives and what they can make. Be sure and ask for DR PAUL M BRENAN the Medical Lecturer, and read his sign on his door.
